Preface

I am pleased to present the eleventh volume of the series Empirical Issues in Syntax and Semantics (EISS), which, like the preceding ten volumes of the series, is closely related to the conference series Colloque de Syntaxe et Sémantique à Paris (CSSP). The eleven papers included in the present volume are based on abstracts that were accepted for (and, in most instances, also presented at) CSSP 2015, which took place on 08–10 October 2015 at Université Paris 7 (http://www.cssp.cnrs.fr/cssp2015/index\_en.html). CSSP 2015 had a small thematic session entitled Global or genre/domain-dependent grammar?, but since the number of papers from the thematic session submitted to the volume was low, it did not seem desirable to have two groupings of papers.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the external reviewers, whose comments aided the authors in revising the first drafts of their papers, sometimes substantially. With their permission, the external reviewers were (in alphabetical order by column):

Chris Cummins	Jonathan Ginsburg	Philip Miller
Tim Fernando	Caroline Heycock	Manfred Sailer
Itamar Francez	Greg Kobele	Benjamin Spector
Hans-Martin Gärtner	Alda Mari

Finally, I would also like to take this opportunity to thank both the scientific committee and the organizing committee of CSSP 2015 (http://www.cssp.cnrs.fr/cssp2015/contact/index\_en.html) for their efforts in planning and organizing a memorable conference.
